

Fashion Culture Tour

Destination: Auckland

Duration 5 Hours

From designer stores to bustling markets, Auckland has it all. The many fashion stores and boutique outlets of this most liveable city will provide all the retail therapy you need to enjoy your stay.

DESTINATIONS

Takapuna

Takapuna has an array of upbeat fashion clothing and boutique stores. One of which is Individual, a womens designer clothing boutique where local and New Zealand fashion designers use the premises as both a gallery for their creations and a retail outlet.

High Street

High Street and the new shopping area known as Chancery are home to many fashion boutiques and designer stores, including that of Karen Walker, one of New Zealands most famous fashion designer.

Victoria Park Market

Victoria Park Market, close to the central city has a mix of shops, stalls, unique arts, crafts and food from around the world.

Parnell Village

Parnell Village is an historic shopping area, just 10 minutes east of the city with charming and exclusive boutiques, where you can find original gifts, art and clothing. Also home to one of Trelise Coopers stores.

Ponsonby Road

Ponsonby Road is a shopping destination for fashion aficionados and offers an array of clothing and designer lifestyle shops, contemporary shopping and cafe dining.

Newmarket

Shopping in Newmarket showcases every kind of speciality clothing store imaginable. Broadway offers a variety of footwear, lifestyle and clothing boutiques, as well as a shopping mall complex which houses some of the top international brands.

Botany Town Centre

Botany Town Centre is New Zealands largest retail development with approximately 150 speciality stores, a New World supermarket, Aucklands largest Farmers store and New Zealands largest movie screen complex at Berkeley Cinemas. Enjoy shopping, dining and relaxing amidst picturesque streets, lanes and piazzas and take time to visit the many cafes, restaurants, boutiques and speciality stores.

